

DEATHS.

—Mr. Morgan Fay, aged 82 years, died at his home about one mile from Millersburg on the Maysville pike at an early hour Monday morning. His death was due to the infirmities incident to old age. Mr. Fay moved to Bourbon from Mason county about two years ago and previous to that time had spent the greater part of his life in the latter county. The funeral services were held from the Catholic church in this city Tuesday morning conducted by Rev. Father Eugene DeBruyn. Burial in the Paris Catholic cemetery.

—The remains of Mr. John W. Childers, who was burned to death in the fire which destroyed his grocery store in Lexington at an early hour Monday morning, were brought to Paris Wednesday afternoon for burial. The funeral services were held at the grave in the Paris cemetery at 4 o'clock and were conducted by Elder Carey E. Morgan, of the Christian church.

The body accompanied by sorrowing relatives arrived here on the 3 o'clock L. & N. train. Six members of the Lexington Fire Department, of which Mr. Childers was for a long time a member, accompanied the body to its final resting place. They were Messrs. T. H. Bowman, Henry Sheehan, William Lancart, John Slavin, Thomas Fraizer and Thomas Knight.

New Trimmer.

We have been fortunate this year in obtaining the services of Miss Blanche Plummer, one of the best trimmers in the business. Miss Plummer is a thorough graduate of the art and has had thorough training. If the ladies of this section want something swell this fall they should wait for our fall display on October 5th.

MATRIMONIAL.

—The marriage of Miss Mary Hedges Clay to Mr. William Adams Grimes was quietly celebrated Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Sallie B. Hedges, on Duncan avenue at 7:30 o'clock, Elder Carey E. Morgan, of the Christian church, officiating.

The wedding came in the nature of a surprise to the friends of this popular couple, and while their intentions were generally known, even their most intimate friends were not aware that the time of the wedding was so close at hand.

The ceremony was said in the presence of the immediate families of the contracting parties, and was performed by Elder Morgan in his usual beautiful and impressive manner. The bride is a graduate of the Bourbon Female College, being a member of the class of 1911, and is an unusually bright and attractive young lady, with many accomplishments and admired by a large circle of friends.

Mr. Grimes at present holds a position with the Agricultural Bank as a bookkeeper with that establishment. He is a graduate of the Paris High School and of Transylvania University, Lexington. He is popular and enjoys a wide acquaintance, being held in the highest esteem by his large number of friends.

Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left for Lexington in an automobile from which point they started on their honeymoon, without imparting to anyone their destination. They will be at home after October 1, 130 Duncan avenue.

—Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Duley, of Flemingsburg, announce the engagement of their daughter, Elizabeth, to Mr. Jos. P. Wood, of Maysville. The wedding will take place about the middle of October.

Paris Ties Two With Colts.

The game between Paris and Lexington Tuesday afternoon resulted in a score of 3 to 3, the game being called at the conclusion of the ninth inning on account of darkness. Hauser pitched for the locals while Taft did the slaw work for the visitors. The game was hotly contested and neither side scored until the sixth.

The game Wednesday afternoon went ten innings without a score being made when it was called on account of darkness.

Suffers Broken Wrist.

Mrs. Mary Stivers met with a painful accident Wednesday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. L. B. Keal, on Henderson street, by which she sustained a broken wrist. Mrs. Stivers, who is seventy-one years of age, had gone into the yard to hang some articles on the clothes line, and the act of raising her arms sufficiently high to reach the line caused a faintness and she fell, catching her arm beneath her body, fracturing the member. Mrs. Stivers suffered intensely from the injury.

Ever Responsive to Genius.

"There is no work of genius which has not been the delight of mankind; no word of genius to which the human heart and soul have not sooner or later responded."—James Russell Lowell.

Police Court.

Disorderly conduct in respectable communities will not be tolerated by the officials, as evidenced by the action of Judge January in police court yesterday when five negro offenders before his honor were given these orders and one couple ordered to seek a location in another part of the town. The couple in question was Henry Smith and Annie Custer who resided in East Paris. They were arrested on a charge of disorderly conduct and ordered to move from the community after a fine of $7.50 in each case had been imposed.

Amanda Shumate, Susan Duncan and Nathan Wells, all negroes, became disorderly in a house on Pleasant street between Seventh and Eighth resulting in their arrest. The Shumate woman was fined $12.50. The three were given orders to conduct themselves properly in the future or seek quarters in another locality.

On a charge of drunkenness Mary Turner and Amanda Coleman were each fined $7.50 and on the same charge Loomie Veal was fined and James Stonestreet charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct was fined $12.50.

Miss Minnie Harris, of Germantown, will arrive from Frankfort today where she has been attending the State meeting of the Christian church as the guest of her niece, Mrs. Aaron McConnell.

Two students arrived from New York Wednesday at M. M. I. New students are arriving almost daily and yet there are several to come. The school will be practically full when all are here.

Rev. T. W. Watts, Drs. C. C. Fisher and J. O. A. Vaught returned Tuesday from the Conference of the M. E. church which closed at Richmond Monday night. Rev. Watts goes to Scott street, Covington, and is succeeded by Rev. Swift, who has been transferred to the Kentucky conference from Little Rock, Ark. Dr. Vaught is presiding elder of the Covington District and will occupy the parsonage at Fort Thomas.

Mr. M. H. Current, aged 71, died at his home Tuesday at 12:45 a. m. after a lingering illness of tuberculosis of the bowels. He was one of Millersburg's most prominent citizens having been identified in the past with many of the enterprises of our town. He was a native of Harrison county, and was married when quite a young man to Miss Fisher, residing for many years on his farm in Nicholas county. He moved to Millersburg about thirty years ago for the purpose of educating his children. Shortly after coming here his wife died.

He was a life long member of the Methodist church and has taken a keen interest in all its work. He has served as trustee of the church, and for many years until the past few months was superintendent of the Sunday school, resigning after he was unable to discharge his duties, and was one of the stewards of the church at the time of his death. Mr. Current was deeply interested in the cause of education, and when the legal battle was on between the Methodist conference of the M. E. church and the people of Millersburg concerning the removal of the Kentucky Wesleyan College, he with Dr. I. R. Best, Dr. W. M. Miller and Mr. J. A. Miller were the champions in espousing the cause of the people of Millersburg.

After the U. S. Supreme Court had sustained the Kentucky Court of Appeals in moving the Kentucky Wesleyan from Millersburg to Winchester, he, with the above named gentlemen purchased a lot from Mrs. M. J. Caldwell adjoining the K. W. C. property for the purpose of building a training school. About the time the building was completed amicable arrangements were made with the Board of Education of the K. W. C. whereby they could use their property, Millersburg appointing a local board to act with and under the conference board. Mr. Current was a member of this board for several years.

For a number of years he was identified with Mr. John W. Mock as furniture dealer and undertaker and was also a member of the well known leaf tobacco firm of Ball, Thomson & Co., and at the same time a member of the coal and lumber firm of Current & Clarke. During the panic of 1893 he with many others of this community was forced to make an assignment and for several years he was actively recuperating his fortune, this however he did to a large degree, and was squarely on his feet at the time of his death. For the past few years he has retired from business enterprises looking after his farming interests.

and residing with his daughter, Mrs. W. S. Judy.

Mr. Current was the father of three daughters and one son, Mesdames J. B. Cray, W. D. McIntyre and W. S. Judy, all of Millersburg, and Mr. Earl Current, of Lexington. The second daughter, Mrs. McIntyre, died about ten years ago. He was one of a large family of children and is survived by three sisters, Mesdames Harry Eales, William Payne and Lafa Endicott, all of Cynthia, and Rev. Jasper Current, of Lagrange. He has been confined to his home for several months and was a patient quiet sufferer. He lived for several days after his death was hourly expected.

The funeral took place Thursday afternoon at 2:30 at Methodist church, his pastor, Rev. T. W. Watts, officiating, assisted by Doctors C. C. Fisher and J. O. A. Vaught. Interment in Millersburg cemetery. The following pall-bearers are stewards of the church: R. C. Chanslor, D. P. Jones, T. E. Savage, E. W. Ammerman, J. F. McDaniel and Henry Patterson. The funeral was largely attended and the services were very impressive. The floral designs were numerous, attesting the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

The following from out of town attended the funeral: Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Current, Lexington; Rev. Jasper Current, Louisville; Mr. C. M. McWetley and daughter, Greencastle, Ind.; Mesdames Minnie Rule and D. B. Judy, Middlesboro; Miss Nellie Highland, Judge Denis Dundon, Dr. J. O. Marshall and Mr. Pearce Paton, Paris; Mr. Charles Eales, Mr. and Mrs. Lafa Endicott, Mr. and Mrs. William Endicott, Mr. William Payne, Cynthia; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stuart and Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Judy, Carlisle.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sheeler have returned from a visit to relatives in Cynthia.

Mr. M. P. Wells attended the State meeting of the Christian church at Frankfort Thursday.

Mr. T. T. Bentley has purchased the W. M. Miller property and will take possession October 1.

Elder F. M. Troy has resigned his charge as pastor of the Christian church at this place, the resignation to take effect the first of January.

Mr. S. C. Carpenter, of this place, has been very successful at the county fairs this fall. At three fairs Mr. Carpenter took premiums to the value of $1,000.

Students are arriving daily at the M. F. C. This week five from one family in Virginia, two for the Female College and three for the M. M. I. matriculated.

Record Sale of Yearlings.

The biggest sale of yearling thoroughbreds ever held in Kentucky was made Tuesday when the entire crop of yearlings of Catesby Woodford's Race-land Stud and Col. E. F. Clay's Runymede Stud were disposed of at public outcry. The sale was held on the farm of Mr. Woodford near this city and was conducted by the Kentucky Sales Company, of Lexington. Prominent horsemen from all over the country attended and the highest prices prevailed, bidding being spirited. Special interurban cars were run from Lexington Tuesday morning and were met at the station by automobiles in which the large crowd was conveyed to the Woodford farm. In the sale forty three head were offered and the sale aggregated a total of $15,505, an average of $350 per head.

The highest price of the day was realized on a chestnut filly, Imp Star Shoot—Breakwater, a sister to Running Water and Yankee Girl. The filly was the property of Col. Clay and she was knocked down to Harry McDaniel, who purchased her for Phil Chinn.

A chestnut colt by Imp Star Shoot, out of Sardine, and a part of the Woodford consignment, was sold to J. Miller Ward, of Paris for $1,500. The colt is a half brother to the famous Spoin. Other sales were: Bay gelding by Star Shoot—Kentucky Belle, to John Walters, $650; chestnut colt by Star Shoot—Thirly-Third, to Wm. Wallace, $600; chestnut colt by Star Shoot—High Degree, to John E. Madden, $1,000; bay colt by Star Shoot—Estele Whitney, to Gallagher Bros., $575; chestnut filly by Star Shoot—Blue Darube, $750; chestnut colt by Star Shoot—Lizzie Dixon, to John Walter, $375; chestnut colt by Star Shoot—Real Lave, to Henry McDaniel, $775; chestnut colt by Star Shoot—Queen Regent, to J. C. Milam, $710.
